

User Stories

“As a player, I want to be able to play a satisfyingly challenging game that requires some skill so that I feel engaged, interested and entertained.”

“As a second player, I want to be able to have fun racing against my friend to complete a level so that I can have just as much fun or more playing with two players than on my own.”

“As a player, I want to be able to view my scores so that I can see myself improve as I learn the skills of the game.”
